Honesty Respect Happiness Achievement

Thank you!

We would like to thank the pupils and the parents for making the school such a happy, vibrant and rewarding place to be. The resilience and determination the community has shown this year has been inspirational. We are excited about our move to the new campus and look forward to seeing you all in August for a new session.

House Captains

The SMT would like to thank this year's House Captains - Camilla, Finn, Ewan, Jack and Katrina for their help and support. We would also like to congratulate our new House Captains and Vice Captains for session 2016-2017.

Portuguese Classes

After summer we have a parent willing to run Portuguese classes on a Wednesday after school for P4-7 pupils. We would like to gauge interest for this. If you would like your child to attend these classes, please email Miss Finch katie.finch@aberdeenshire.gov.uk.

Garden Party

Thank you to all our P4 pupils and teachers for organising a fantastic Garden Party to thank all our parent helpers.

Arrangements for August

We will send out another edition of First Class the week before school starts back giving you information on classrooms and where your child should line up. We hope you have a fantastic summer break.
