How good is the quality of care and education we offer?

Key QI: 2.3 Learning, Teaching and Assessment

Other Relevant QIs:

- 3.2 Raising Attainment and Achievement
- 1.1 Self-Evaluation for Self-Improvement
- 2.2 Curriculum
- 2.4 Personalised Support
- 3.3 Increasing Creativity and Employability

NIF Priority

Improvement in attainment, particularly in literacy and numeracy

NIF Drivers

Overview

Staff are beginning to use/interpret data to directly influence the teaching and learning. Benchmarking and Moderation are used collaboratively to ensure sound professional judgements. Tracking is robust and informs decisions about learners. Staff are committed to improving learning and teaching.

Level of Quality: Good/Very Good

Strengths

- Strong Vision, Values and Aims
- Lesson Design, differentiation and Assessment
- Learning is profiled effectively but without excessive workload
- Tracking is detailed and reflects the learning and wellbeing of individuals, groups and year groups.
- Embedded ASL reviews take account of qualitative and quantitative data.
- Literacy is taught creatively and resources for comprehension and L&T are developing

Areas for Development

- Moderation, Data Analysis and Class Reviews impact on Learning and Teaching
- Digital Learning
- Spelling, grammar and writing lessons need rigour
- Making Thinking Visible and HOTS Thinking culture in the school
- Experiences and Outcomes – Analysis of delivery
- ASL targets different ‘tiers’ of learners and impact is carefully analysed

Impact

- Reviews and data discussions demonstrate areas for development and strategic solutions
- Close the attainment/ behavioural gaps evident in specific year group
- Teachers will be more knowledgeable in how to implement theoretical and practical techniques of thinking routines
- Literacy and Numeracy is taught using sound pedagogy including some of the underpinning theory of reading and writing.
- Digital Literacy is taught consistently with a progression skills.

Action/Evidence

- Classroom observations, learning conversations and teacher, pupil and parent learning circles.
- In-service target on spelling, grammar and writing.

What is our capacity for continuous Improvement?

Key QI: 1.1 and 1.2  Other Relevant QIs: 2.2 Curriculum (IDL, Partnerships, skills for LLW) 2.3 Learning Teaching and Assessment 3.1 Ensuring Wellbeing, Equality and Inclusion 2.4 Personalised Support	NIF Priority  All Priorities	NIF Drivers – All

Overview

Level of Quality:

Strengths  Positive Relationships between school staff and EP  Clear expectations – what are we expecting to change?  Delivery/ support to the school  Shared understanding of the development needs of the school. Mutual respect allows for reciprocal professional challenge  Shared constructs around inclusion	Areas for Development  More use of Informal Consultation- directly with teachers  Emotion Coaching continue from session 2018-2019 direct towards parents 05.03.20  Staff Emotion Coaching Feb In-Service  Cognitive Skills – In-Service – All Levels  Challenging Learning- teachers evaluate and modify Practice

Impact  Build capacity for teachers to be responsive to learning need and reflective/ make choices about their own practice.  Teachers make active choices about their interaction and dialogue with learners.  Overtly aware of the underpinning cognitive skills and apply these in different contexts  Staff recognise and develop their own skills and can draw on their knowledge in order to foster positive relationships, help children develop skills for self-regulation and promote readiness for learning  Restorative – links- feelings, emotions – rather than the behaviour or what’s going on behind the behaviour.	Action/Evidence  Practitioner Enquiry Feedback  Questionnaire – pre-task baselining  Teachers understanding of thinking – comparison- beginning and end.  Videos of children using the language in Learning conversations and during teaching e/g teachers using the language of thinking/ terminology  EP to attend Practitioner Enquiry Feedback if desired  Learners to complete own task analysis e.g. we are going to draw the still life – what skills do we need?  School Data Review to inform next steps e.g. training, gather more information?
